ORDER:

In the reference 1st read above, the Director General, Anti-Corruption Bureau in his Final Report has stated that during the auction process for the lease period 2010-2012, tenders of Benami persons, which were got filed by the influential persons, who are financially sound, to have control over the wine shops were accepted during the auction conducted in June, 2010 which is against the Excise Rules and regulations. As per the procedure the A1 and A3 Forms submitted in the names of license holders have to be attested by the Excise Officials in token certifying the same. Even after the auction process, after obtaining the licenses by Benamis, there were adequate opportunities during the process of inspection and monitoring the functioning of A4 shops by the Excise Officials, could have confirmed that they were only Benamis and on that, they have to initiate action against the said A-4 license in accordance with the law. But they did not take any such action, this is a case of criminal misconduct against the Prohibition & Excise Officials.

2. In the reference 2nd read above, as per final report of Director General, Anti-Corruption Bureau, Government have decided to take action against (15) Prohibition & Excise officials by placing them on their defence before the Tribunal for disciplinary proceedings including Sri DNM Nandeeswara Rao, Prohibition & Excise Inspector.

3. In the reference 3rd read above, the Commissioner of Prohibition Excise, Andhra Pradesh has informed that Sri DNM Nandeeswara Rao, Prohibition & Excise Inspector has expired on 8/12/2015 and her wife has represented to Commissioner for Prohibition & Excise, Andhra Pradesh requesting to release family pension and other benefits for which they are eligible, on behalf of her husband.
